"THE SPACE INFLUENCES HOW I WORK AND HOW PRODUCTIVE I CAN BE. I LOVE TO SHOW UP SEVEN DAYS A WEEK IN THIS STUDIO."

—Artist Catherine Eaton Skinner on her Seattle studio

PAINTER'S PALETTE

This page, clockwise from top: collaborative outdoor space at the 20-unit Songzhuang artist village on the outskirts of Beijing; sliding and pivoting wall panels allow for easy reconfiguration of artist Catherine Eaton Skinner's Seattle studio. Tom Kundig from renowned Olson Kundig Architects transformed this former dilapidated warehouse into a flexible 3,750-square-foot loft; sustainable design integrates seamlessly with nature at Arc House, an East Hampton photographer's live/work residence, recently completed by award-winning MB Architecture.
